

California Health Care Foundation

HEALTH CARE THAT WORKS FOR ALL CALIFORNIANS

Connecting Medication Assisted Treatment to Primary Care: the Hub and Spoke Model

John Brooklyn, MD

Desiree A. Crevecoeur-MacPhail, PhD

Jeffrey Devido, MD, MTS

Kelly Pfeifer, MD

Opioid Safety Coalitions Network

March 8, 2017

Today's Speakers

John Brooklyn, MD,
Medical Director, Howard Center Chittenden Clinic and Baymark Opioid Treatment Programs in Vermont

Desiree A. Crevecoeur-MacPhail, PhD,
Research psychologist and principal investigator at UCLA Integrated Substance Abuse Programs

Jeffrey DeVido, MD, MTS,
Assistant Clinical Professor, Department of Psychiatry, UCSF,
Medical Director, Marin County Drug Medi-Cal Program

Kelly Pfeifer, MD,
Director, High-Value Care, California Health Care Foundation

Housekeeping

- All attendees will be muted for the presentation and may be unmuted individually during Q and A
- This session will be recorded
- Slides and recording will be posted within a week on the CHCF website: www.chcf.org/oscn

To ask a presenter a question

- Click the “Raise Your Hand” icon on your webinar control panel and we will unmute individual attendees during Q and A (or)
- Use the question box to write your question and we will answer questions in the order received

To ask a logistical question about the webinar

- Use “Chat to the Host”

Upcoming Events and Webinars

April 3, 2017: 12:30-1:30 pm.

Academic Detailing: Using brief, in-person visits with clinicians to change prescribing practices

May 2017: TBD

Treating addiction in pregnancy in rural California

Questions and Discussion

John Brooklyn

johnr.brooklyn@gmail.com

Desiree A. Crevecoeur-MacPhail

desireec@g.ucla.edu

Jeffrey Devido

JDevido@marincounty.org

Kelly Pfeifer

kpfeifer@chcf.org