

Connect to the Resources
You Need with

Community Connections

communityconnections.auntbertha.com

Community Connections is a convenient way to find the help you need right in your own backyard. Or, if you're looking for help for a loved one, Community Connections can help you find community resources near them.

Just visit communityconnections.auntbertha.com and enter a ZIP code for yourself, family or friend and find nearby programs and services to help with:

- Education
- Finances
- Food
- Healthcare
- Housing
- Legal help
- Medical supplies
- Transportation
- And more!

You can also search for a service by name using the site's search bar. Use the filters (personal, program or income eligibility) to help you to narrow your search. You can connect directly with a program or you can email or print out the information you need.

Community Connections is also available in other languages—just select the one of your choice.
